IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH VOL. 60, NO. 2

The Pastor's Page

This year, we have an interesting overlap of religious seasons. February 18th is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent for Christians. However, it also happens to be the first day of Ramadan for Muslims. And I have no doubt that the world will look at that alignment and find it appropriate. After all, both seasons are visibly marked by fasting and prayer and generosity. Yet beneath those shared practices lie two very different understandings of God, salvation, and human sinfulness.

Lent begins with ashes and the words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." From the very first moment, Lent tells the truth about us. We are sinners. We are mortal. We cannot fix what is broken between us and God. Lent is therefore not a season of self-improvement. It is a season of repentance.

The fasting, prayer, and giving of Lent are not ways to make ourselves acceptable to God. They are methods of disciplining the flesh and eliminating distractions, so that we can hear again the Word that kills and makes alive. Lent drives us to the cross, where salvation is not achieved by our effort, but given by Christ's suffering and death for sinners.

In other words, Lent is shaped by the Gospel. We fast because we are already reconciled to God in Christ, not in order to become reconciled. We repent because forgiveness is promised. We pray because we have a Father who already knows our needs and has already given His Son for us.

Ramadan is also a season of fasting, prayer, and alms, but it operates within a fundamentally different framework. In Islam, there is no atoning Savior who bears sin in the place of sinners. There is no cross where God Himself pays the debt of human guilt. Instead, Ramadan functions as an act of obedience within a system where acceptance by God is tied to submission and legalism.

Fasting during Ramadan is not about responding to divine mercy. It is an obligation commanded by law. Prayer and acts of charity are done because they are required. Every good work in Islam is done because, at the end of your life, your deeds will be weighed and your hope rests in whether those deeds are sufficient to earn the favor of an inscrutable deity.

So, you can see that both Lent and Ramadan take sin seriously, but they solve the problem of sin in opposite ways. Ramadan answers sin with religious effort: fasting more strictly, praying more often, giving more generously. The burden remains on the worshiper to prove their obedience.

Lent answers sin with Christ: with His obedience, His suffering, His blood, and His death in the place of sinners. The burden is lifted from our shoulders and placed on the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

This is why Lent, though somber, is never hopeless. We begin with ashes, but every day brings us closer to Easter. We confess our sins, but we do so already knowing the verdict: for Christ's sake, I am forgiven. Our fasting is not about earning God's approval, but learning again and again that "man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."

So, while Lent and Ramadan may begin on the same calendar day and share some outward similarities, they move in opposite directions. Ramadan moves toward the uncertain hope that obedience might be enough. Lent moves toward the certain hope that Christ is enough. Lent moves toward the sure and certain hope of the Gospel.

May God bless your Lenten preparations this month,
-Pastor Ketelsen

PRESCHOOL NEWS

January has been a wonderful month in our classroom! Parent-teacher conferences went very well, and we truly appreciate the time you took to meet with us.

In chapel, we learned many meaningful Bible stories, including Jesus welcoming the children, Jesus healing the ten sick men, Zacchaeus, and the story of the two men praying. Pastor Ketelsen continues teaching us about the Creed. He shared lessons about Jesus' suffering and crucifixion, His resurrection, His ascension, and who the Holy Spirit is.

In the classroom, we are continuing to learn more about letters and numbers and how to identify them. We also enjoy dressing our weather frog every day—he has been wearing his coat quite often this month!

We are excited to celebrate with a Valentine's Day party in February. We love our school and are so thankful for your prayers and for providing such a wonderful place for us to learn and grow.

KEEPING UP WITH KINDERGARTEN

Kindergarten has jumped right back into learning after winter break as we settle into our routines once again. The children are enjoying time together as we re-establish classroom rhythms and expectations.

In reading, we are focusing on both short and long vowel sounds. Students are practicing listening carefully, decoding simple words, and building confidence as emerging readers. It's exciting to watch their skills grow each day!

We have begun exploring the solar system. The children are learning about the sun, moon, and planets. They are full of curiosity as they discover how God created such an amazing universe.

Kindergarten is off to a great start this new year, and we are thankful for the enthusiasm, kindness, and growth we see in our students every day.

In HIS Service,
The Kindergarten Team

STEWARDSHIP/OUTREACH BOARD

The Salvation Army campaign for this year was very successful. There were 6 weekends of bell ringing, with 31 organizations at Boonville Walmart ringing the bell, collecting $14,173.83 (last year was $12,276.45). The Howard County volunteers collected $1,772.75 (last year was $1,276.45). Donations from all sources from the Red Kettle Campaign were $15,958.03 (last year was $13,842.97). Donations have increased and The Boonslick Salvation Army – Cooper & Howard Counties has expressed their gratitude for all the volunteers and donations.

On the table in the Narthex are copies of Preparing for Jesus, an Arch Book telling the story of Jesus' birth based on Matthew 2:1-12 and Luke 2:1-21 for children. This book can be saved or provided to a grandchild or other relative.

There are several articles, magazines, etc. available in the Narthex, including the Case for Christmas book and the January issue of Lutheran Witness. Prayer calendars are also available.

Our donations to Neighbors Helping Neighbors in 2025 were outstanding. Your donations of bags, money, food pantry needs, or time in volunteering are greatly appreciated. Please continue your generosity during 2026.

Bible study opportunities are available for all. Check the bulletin board in the hallway, the bulletin, and the newsletter for information. Local outreach services are also available on the bulletin boards. If you don't need them, you may have a family member, friend, or neighbor who could benefit from these services.

The Nativity display answer is: 9 animals (4) + 10 people (2) = 19. I hope you knew the answer based on the January clues.

Please review the long term prayer requests in the Sunday bulletin and contact the office if any changes should be made.

In 2025 there were 58 prayer requests. There were no requests in December, and three in January.

The suggested donations in the month of February for the NHN Food Pantry is paper products and cleaning products, such as paper towels, toilet paper, Kleenex, bleach, dish soap, laundry products, bathroom cleaner, etc. As always, any non-perishable canned and boxed goods are welcome, as well as cash or C&R gift certificates. Food Pantry envelopes are available in the Narthex. Please make checks to Neighbors Helping Neighbors. Thank you for your generosity.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
and ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both
the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
